UNIVERSITY FEE PAYMENT REGULATIONS
FOR ENROLLMENT IN THE TWO-YEAR GRADUATE DEGREE PROGRAM
2024/2025 Academic Year

REFERENCE REGULATIONS

Excerpted from the University of Gastronomic Sciences Student and Program Enrollment Regulations

6.1 – Each year, prior to the start of the academic year, the Executive Committee determines, upon Faculty Council approval, the amount for the university fees for enrollment to the programs. The detailed regulations governing the payment procedures are defined in the Payment Regulations in effect for the corresponding academic year, published on the University's website.

6.2 – Students are only considered regularly enrolled following the payment of the total amount corresponding to the university fees owed.

(Omissis)

6.5 Students not up-to-date with the payment of university fees, and therefore not regularly enrolled, cannot carry out any career activities (sit exams, participate in study trips and in any other academic activities worth university credit), nor may they transfer to other structures or obtain certifications beyond those relative to the academic years in which students were up-to-date with payments.
