21:00 departure for check in at the hotel Xanthipeion in Xanthi.

Domenica 14 Giugno 2026

Breakfast and check out

09:00

A Bite of History - A guided historical tour through the old town of Xanthi, during which we will sample foods associated with different historical periods and communities that have shaped the city's cultural identity. Each tasting offers insight into the culinary traditions and social history of Xanthi's diverse population.

10:30

Depart for Kotyli, a mountain village in the Rhodope Mountains, home to the indigenous Pomaks community. We will visit the Konte family, who cultivate organic herbs and maintain a largely self-sufficient lifestyle through the production of vegetables and legumes. They are currently launching their first herbal brand, Kotili, named after the village. Following a tour of the fields, we will enjoy a traditional lunch prepared with local ingredients.

14:30

Departure to Palagia.

Visit to Hatzisavva Vineyards. Our host for the day will be the young winemaker Kiki Hatzisavva, who will guide us through her organic vineyards, where both indigenous and international grape varieties are cultivated. Following the visit, we will enjoy a tasting of her natural, minimal-intervention wines and learn about her approach to sustainable winemaking and have dinner together.
