14:30

Departure by bus

15:00

Meeting with a local hunter: we will chat about how hunting on the island is essential to keep the population of non-indigenous animals under control. Depending on the weather and luck, we may see an animal hunted the day before, perhaps a fallow deer or wild boar, and see how the animal is cleaned and butchered.

We will then have a walk in an olive grove.

18:00

Bus back to Galboka

20:00

Dinner at Bistro Barbacuan (on foot) featuring local seasonal seafood cooked traditionally. Dinco, the host, will be explaining the recipes, the seafood, and the fishing techniques on the island.
